

Job Title: Disabilities specialist

Job Reference: 1

Partner Organisation:

State Islamic University (UIN) Sunan Kalijaga, Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Country: Indonesia

Language(s): English

Job Description:

- Work with the volunteers and the staff and faculty at UIN's Centre for the Disabled
- To teach or co-teach a course to undergraduate and graduate students (translator provided).
- Assist staff and volunteers at the Centre to develop programs to support students with disabilities.
- Assist in quantitative and qualitative research on disability issues.
- Help the Centre establish its managerial structure.

Educational Qualifications:

- i. Degree: MA, experience in working with marginalized communities, especially people with disabilities
- ii. Discipline: Education, psychology, social work, public policy, management, or others related to disabilities.
- iii. Specialization(s): Disability Studies, community development, counseling, or others related to disabilities

Professional Experience:

Experience in establishing or developing a new center on disabilities and in creating linkages and networks to support the development of the center.

Research Experience:

Experience in conducting quantitative/qualitative research on social issues.

Start date and Duration

First Semester: August 18 to January 14
Second Semester: February 2 to July 20
Preference: one year, but six months possible

This job is pending financing.