

Job Title: Curriculum Development and Marketing Advisor

Job Reference: 5

Partner Organisation:

Directorate of Continuing Education and Professional Development (DCEPD), Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS). Visit www.muhas.ac.tz for information about MUHAS

Country: Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

Language(s): English

Job Description:

To design curricula of Continuing Education and Professional Development for internal and outside clients including marketing.

More than 50% of the volunteer's work will be related to HIV and AIDS curricula development and other Continuing Education and Professional Development activities and assist the Directorate in the marketing aspect.

- Assist the Directorate and Departments in designing curricula for Continuing Education and Professional Development courses
- Marketing of the courses.
- Advice on policy issues related to Continuing Education and Professional Development.
- Designing flyers or invitations or whatever ideas the volunteer can come up with which will market the courses and generate income.
- Organize workshops/seminars for the university and Continuing Education and Professional Development courses for health personnel working outside the institution.

Educational Qualifications:

Basic degree (BA, BSc or Preferably MSc or MA) in Education or curricula design and development with 1-2 years experience or more.

Personnel Qualifications:

Should be a team player, outgoing and hard working person.

Start date and Duration:

Earliest Start Date: July 1, 2008.

Preference: two year appointment, but shorter assignment possible.